

CONFERENCE 2025 OUTLINE

“EN’S MATTER”

Conference Program Highlights:

- Opening Address: Jacqui Cross, Chief Nursing and Midwifery Officer, NSW Health
- Keynote Speaker: Sally Milson-Hawke, DoN JHH – "ENs Matter in Effective Healthcare Delivery"

The following Presentations from Leaders in Healthcare are confirmed.

Cardiac Care:

- Acute Coronary Syndrome – The New Guidelines
- Cardio-Oncology – The Intersection of Cancer & Heart Health
- Heart Failure – From Assessment to Management
- Transcatheter Aortic Valve Implantation (TAVI)

Community & Cultural Health:

- Refugee Health – Rural & Metropolitan Clinics
- Cultural Challenges in Healthcare Access

Critical & Palliative Care:

- The Deteriorating Patient
- Sepsis – A Personal Perspective
- Palliative & End-of-Life Care
- Voluntary Assisted Dying
- Grief and Bereavement Support

Mental & General Health:

- Mental Health Support Strategies
- Healthy Eating – Solutions for Time & Budget Constraints
- Diabetes Management
- Medicinal Cannabis in Healthcare

Education & Industry Panel Discussion:

"Where to Now for ENs?" – A Q&A Session on Future Directions.

The conference will not be available online, so secure your spot and request study leave for this must-attend event! Early registration ensures access to thought-provoking presentations, education, interactive discussions, and valuable networking opportunities. Be sure to share this offer with your work colleagues and friends.